

Terry Cavanagh PRODUCTIONS

Introducing - Terry Cavanagh

Terry Cavanagh and his group are available in several ethnic and theme formats. Terry's material covers many popular themes such as German, Italian, French, as well as many other European styles. Lively and exuberant they add a splash of European charm to any event. And not too many people can do an Alpine yodel like Terry!

Terry comes with many professional credits including a five year stint with America's best loved entertainment forum - Walt Disney World!

Terry Cavanagh has what you are looking for:

- Five years of performance of German, Italian, and French music at Epcot Center.
- Stage and television appearances on four different continents.
- Over twenty years of experience in the entertainment business.
- Experience in some of America's largest festivals including Milwaukee's Germanfest; the Heritagefest in New Ulm; Minnesota's lovely Iron World Performance Center; the Mid- South Fair in Memphis; and of course Wurstfest in New Braunfels, Texas as well as many others.
- Seven years of performance at San Antonio's best known Italian restaurant: Boccone's.
- Five years of performance at San Antonio's best known German restaurant: Schilo's.

An exciting solist or "theme" group that will bring color and charm to your event - available with full costume and music for Italian, French and German as well as many other themes. And you always get vocals, personality, and audience interaction.

Whether you need a solo act or a full band, background music or a show, you are sure to get the talent and personality to keep your audiences charmed, along with a beat your guests can't sit still to.

I'm dedicated to making the entertainment at your event a success. Call me and let's discuss it!
